The rules related to the contest were mentioned on to the flyer in which students need to select the category in which they need to participate.

The registration fees for the student was 100/- per head.

The highlight of the contest was the Asia Book of Records which inspired most of the students to participate.

The Last date for the registration was 12/03/2023.

The students were excited to prepare dishes in category of Breakfast or Dessert in which they want to create the product using the skill governed by them during the academic sessions.

The rules and regulations along with judging criteria were given much in advance which boosted the students to innovate with the classical preparations with core ingredients mentioned in the contest.

Most of the students innovated with dishes such as Ragi gulab Jamun, Ragi Malpua, Ragi & Jowar Burfi, Ragi Swiss Roll, Bajra Brownie, Ragi Brownie, Mix millet flour Cake, Bajra Pudding, Mix Millet samosa, Thalipeeth, Mix millet croquettes etc.

More than 500 participants were involved in the competition in which our students explored and amazed with many innovations done by the other participants too.

Out of five hundred participants our College student named Tanmay Moroney won the 2nd runner up prize.

The college principal was present at the time of prize distribution which also boosted the confidence of participating students. He congratulated all the participants.
