On circular dated 23 Jan 2021, No. Japuti - 2020 /No. 95/29, dt. On December 19, 2020, the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose was celebrated at 2 pm. Principal of our college Dr. Satish Naidu sir expressed his gratitude to Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose by lighting a lamp and placing a wreath at the effigy of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose.

Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose was born on 23 Jan 1899 in the city of Cuttack in the state of Odisha. His father's name was Janakinath Bose and he was a lawyer. Mother's name was Prabhavti.

On 3 May 1939, Subhash Babu established his mill address named forward Block under the College. A few days later, Subhash Babu was removed from congress. Later Forward Block became an independent party. This party imprisoned him and other collaborators even before the outbreak of World War II, which started raising public awareness to intensify India's freedom struggle. As the Second World war was going on, they could not remain inactive in the prisons, so they started a hunger strike in the prisons for their release. Then the government released them. But the British government could not keep them free. So the government kept them under house arrest. on 16 January though he is in prison in 1921, in Pathani garb, assuming the name Mohammad Zia Uddin, he managed to escape the police from Chumwan House. Then it travels from Calcutta- Peshawar-Kakalroth to the capital of Asia via Moscow to the German capital of Berlin.

On October 21, 1943, Netaji founded the Azad Hind Sena in Singapore. Netaji made many speeches in East Asia and appealed to the settled Indian people to join the Azad Hind Fauji and to help them financially to achieve freedom. "Tum muze khoon do mai tumhe azadi dunga," said the slogan.

He is believed to have died on August 18, 1945 when his plane crashed on route to Manchuria in Taiwan, but his death remains one of the greatest unsolved mysteries in Indian history. The entire faculty of the college attended the program and the program concluded by expressing their gratitude to him.
