Martyr's Day

To pay homage to Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi 30th January is celebrated as 'Martyr's Day' throughout India. Nathuram Godse was shot dead on 30 Jan 1448 at the age of 78 while going to pray. 30 Jan was celebrated as Martyr's Day. In this way, the brilliant diamond in the throat of caste, Bharat Mati became timeless. Mahatma Gandhi was an immortal beacon of India. It is a great torch of thought always burning with our thoughts. Kanoon Gandhiji is still recognized throughout the world as a pious prophet who showed the world in modern times that through truth, non-violence and peace, India and the whole world can be happy and contented.

Gandhiji is still recognized around the world as a divine prophet who showed the world in modern times that it is possible to be happy and contented.

Mahatmaji's death has repeatedly proved that even after one leaves this world in physical form, one's thoughts do not end, on the contrary, they become brighter and brighter. It is not a lie that the world-famous scientist Amber Einstein said that future generations will not believe that Mahatma Gandhi's bones have passed away on this earth. In order to keep the culture and memory of such activities in mind, 'Martyrs' Day' was observed in the College's Library. The program was graced by the presence of students and professors. And distributed sweets to the students.
