On 02nd October 2020 Gandhi ji and Lal Bahadur Shastri birth anniversary was celebrated at our college Library. Mahatma Gandhi, byname of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi born October 2, 1869, Porbandar, India His schooling was done in Rajkot, he went to Africa for further education and after returning to India, he participated in the freedom struggle.

Lal Bahadur Shastri, (born October 2, 1904, Mughalsarai, India Shastri ji considered Gandhi as his guru, he was a prime minister of independent India. In his time, India was not a rich country, so he asked the people to fast one day in a week (Monday). He has a long way to go to unite our country in terms of foodgrains through the mantra "Jai Jawan Jay Kisan".

When he were the prime minister of India During the war which the Indian forces had won the territory occupied by China but had to return it to them as per the Takshkand agreement.

This program was attended by our College Principal Dr. Satish Naydu Sir, Vice Principal Prof. Akshay Dandale Sir, Faculty Class and students. Under the Swachh Bharat Mission, Swachhata Abhiyan was implemented every year as part of the National Service Scheme, but due to Covid-19, that campaign was not implemented.

12 January is celebrated as National Youth Day across India. On that occasion, Youth Day program was organized in our college library on 12 January 2021. Yugapurush Swami Vivekananda was born on 12 Jan 1863 in Kolkata, His father's name was Vishwanath Dutt and his mother Bhuvaneshwari Dutt was his 5th child. He brought the importance of Hinduism beyond seven seas. Margaret Nobel of Arylad, i.e. Bhagani Nivedita, was impressed by the definition thought and came to India and started a girls' school at Kolkata. Also, his Guru Sri Ramakrishna Paramahansa gave him darshan of God seven times a day. He took Mahasamadhi at the age of 39 (4 July 1902).

Swami Vivekananda's dream youth- Must be a youth

The face is radiant, there is power in the body

Enthusiasm is in the mind, wisdom is in the mind

There is compassion in the heart, Love the motherland

The senses are restrained, whose mind is steady faith is strong, will is strong

Courage is strong, Fearless like a lion

Whose Highness, Truth Whose God Is

Is free from addictions, Discipline in life

Love that has a melody, Humanity is the clan

Respect of teacher, there is faith in parents

He is a friend of the poor. Ready for service

Devoted to God.,Jeevan has Niti in character whose character is pure, He is the ideal youth and he used to say 'You are the creator of your own destiny' at Belur near Blakma who founded the Ramakrishna Mission "Shivbhava Jeevseta".

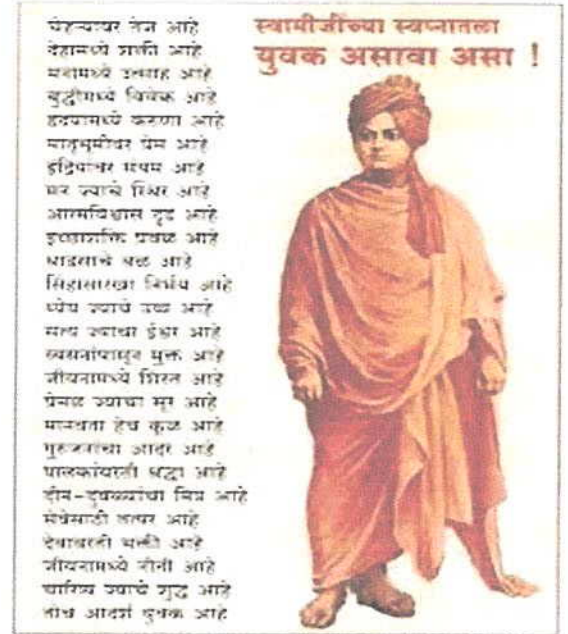

The whole world in 39 years > 1902 July 4: Mahasamadhi

March 1902- Return to Belur Math

1902 March- May. - Travel to East Bengal and Assam

1900 Dec 9- Return from trip to Europe and America arriving in Bemur Math

On 19 February 2021 at 1 p.m in the presence of the college principal and the teaching staff

"Shiv Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj" Jayanti was celebrated. Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj also spelled as Sivaji was born on 19 February 1630. He was born at Shivneri which is a hill fort in Junnar in Poona, now known as Pune. His father's name was Shahaji Bhosale and mother Jilabai Bhosale. He was the founder of Hindu Swarajya.

Shivaji had himself enthroned with great fanfare as an independent sovereign. The suppressed Hindu majority rallied to him as their leader. He ruled his domain for six years, through a cabinet of eight ministers. A devout Hindu who prided himself as the protector of his religion, he broke tradition by commanding that two of his relatives, who had been forcibly converted to Islam, should be taken back into the Hindu fold. Yet even though both Christians and Muslims often imposed their creeds on the populace by force, he respected the beliefs and protected the places of worship of both communities. Many Muslims were in his service. After his coronation, his most noteworthy campaign was in the south, during which he forged an alliance with the sultans and thereby blocked the grand design of the Mughals to spread their rule over the entire subcontinent.

On circular dated 23 Jan 2021, No. Japuti - 2020 /No. 95/29, dt. On December 19, 2020, the birth anniversary of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose was celebrated at 2 pm. Principal of our college Dr. Satish Naidu sir expressed his gratitude to Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose by lighting a lamp and placing a wreath at the effigy of Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose.

Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose was born on 23 Jan 1899 in the city of Cuttack in the state of Odisha. His father's name was Janakinath Bose and he was a lawyer. Mother's name was Prabhavti.

On 3 May 1939, Subhash Babu established his mill address named forward Block under the College. A few days later, Subhash Babu was removed from congress. Later Forward Block became an independent party. This party imprisoned him and other collaborators even before the outbreak of World War II, which started raising public awareness to intensify India's freedom struggle. As the Second World war was going on, they could not remain inactive in the prisons, so they started a hunger strike in the prisons for their release. Then the government released them. But the British government could not keep them free. So the government kept them under house arrest. on 16 January though he is in prison in 1921, in Pathani garb, assuming the name Mohammad Zia Uddin, he managed to escape the police from Chumwan House. Then it travels from Calcutta- Peshawar-Kakalroth to the capital of Asia via Moscow to the German capital of Berlin.

On October 21, 1943, Netaji founded the Azad Hind Sena in Singapore. Netaji made many speeches in East Asia and appealed to the settled Indian people to join the Azad Hind Fauji and to help them financially to achieve freedom. "Tum muze khon do mai tumhe azadi dunga," said the slogan.

He is believed to have died on August 18, 1945 when his plane crashed on route to Manchuria in Taiwan, but his death remains one of the greatest unsolved mysteries in Indian history. The entire faculty of the college attended the program and the program concluded by expressing their gratitude to him.

Over the last few decades, there has been an upsurge in the prevalence of yoga. Medical professionals and celebrities are also adopting and recommending the regular practice of yoga due its various benefits. To live through this lockdown & pandemic period, yoga is the best thing to adopt as a lifestyle habit. It helps students to build a strong physical, mental and spiritual health system. When combined with breathing and meditation, it acts as the best element to take care of our mind, body and soul. There are different forms of yoga that can help students to stay physically strong and mentally balanced. This year Shri Balasaheb Tirpude college of Hotel Management and Catering Technology celebrated International Yoga Day on Zoom Platform so that it brought its own flavour and benefits to the table, which was performed by Students and Faculty of the College, and provides them with a holistic sense of health, which was especially required during these times.
